

Connecting scientific fields in Benelux and Spain

1st Edition: What can we learn from each other?

Saturday, October 19 2024, Antwerp (Belgium)

10.30 - Opening statements Pedro Martínez Ruano (Education Counsellor Embassy of Spain) y Elena Domínguez (Director CSIC, Representation to the EU in Brussels); and the Board of Directors of the CEBE and CENL associations

10.45 - Keynote lecture 1: "Membrane technology: the core of more sustainable processes?"
Prof. Patricia Luis Alconero, UCLouvain, BE

11:30 - Coffee pause

11:50 - Panel Discussion I: "Biotechnology: current limitations and coming challenges"

Facilitator: Rodrigo García Valiente, Amsterdam UMC

- Dr. Rosa Martín Pérez, Johnson & Johnson, BE
- Dr. Ania Lukasiewicz, Wageningen University, NL
- María Torres Toda, Laboratoire National de Santé, LUX

13:15 - Your research in 3 minutes

13:30 - pitch GAIN and IMEC

13.50 - Lunch and Poster Session

14:50 - Panel Discussion II: "Artificial Intelligence: where are we heading towards?"

Facilitator: Dr. Alessia Tomo, University of Antwerp

- Prof. Tom M. Heskes, Radboud University, NL
- Dr. Rafa Gálvez Vizcaíno, KU Leuven, BE
- Prof. Luis A. Leiva, University of Luxembourg, LUX

16:15 - Your research in 3 minutes

16:30 - Coffee pause (30 min)

Parallel session: Networking con GAIN, la Axencia Galega de Innovación

17:00 - Keynote lecture 2: "Immunity in time and space"

Prof. Jorge Domínguez Andrés, Radboud University Medical Center, NL

17:45 - Prize ceremony

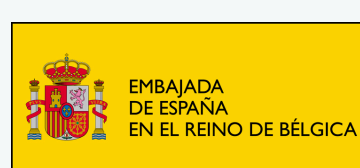

17:55 - Closing remarks

18:10 - Networking Reception - During this time, both art exhibitions will be presented: "Scientia" (CENL) and "Science Freeze or I'll Shoot" (CEBE)

An initiative from:

Sponsored by:

FUNDACIÓN
RAMÓN ARECES

AXENCIA
GALEGA DE
INNOVACIÓN

